

MACK & SALT TAKE THIRD WHEEL TO LONDON FOLLOWING TRIUMPHANT EDINBURGH FESTIVAL FRINGE

Hilarious...Laughs at every turn ★★★★★ The Sunday Times
Quick-fire, zinger-filled scripting ★★★★★ The Scotsman
Hugely funny and desperately poignant ★★★★★ The Stage

Building on their success at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe, spritely and scintillating Eliot Salt and Jude Mack return to perform their latest critically-acclaimed show about grief, love and everything in between, Third Wheel. The tightly-written, fast paced romantic comedy narrated by an on-stage band will be performed at the Bloomsbury Theatre from 19th – 21st March.

Delving in to the lives of two young women, Third Wheel follows the moment Polly (Salt) and Eve (Mack) are reluctantly reunited at their mutual friend Dylan's (Harry Trevaldwyn) wake. Through a droll, Sondheim-esque narration, Dylan's band Party In The Sky follow the pair as they put their differences aside and dutifully undertake his dying wish to reunite on a road trip around the UK, ashes in tow. Audiences are invited to experience the joy and pain of love and grief through the witty lens of Mack & Salt's latest creation.

Eliot Salt and Jude Mack have established themselves at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival with cult, heartfelt productions about generation Y. In 2016 the two-part musical PREDRINKS/AFTERPARTY written by the pair enjoyed a sell-out run at the festival and was met with rave reviews. Following a celebrated 2015 run with the musical Get Your Shit Together, written by Salt and directed by Mack, the play transferred to The Landor Theatre in London.

Salt studied English at Bristol University and is currently training at LAMDA. Mack is an on stage and screen actor who recently starred in film Wanderland in 2015.

What The Press Said:

The biggest strength of Deadpan Theatre's production is Mack and Salt ★★★★★ The List

Third Wheel is a very strong show and an absolute joy to watch. The entire cast appear to be having the time of their lives and their love of performance is infectious ★★★★★ Broadway Baby

Great new writing with an impressive cast that deserves to be seen ★★★★★ Fringe Review

A strong and ambitious team with natural wit who are heading for the heights of comic success. Imaginative and fantastically observed, this is stage-based situation comedy at its very best. ★★★★★ Epigram

Really exciting and fresh. This is a company to keep an eye on ★★★★★ The New Current

Great songs, intelligent writing, superb acting and comic timing.... A must see. ★★★★★ Ed Fringe Review

It's different, and quirky, and endearing, and well worth a watch ★★★★★ Voice Mag

A really enchanting piece of theatre, guaranteed to wash the autumnal blues away London Theatre

LISTINGS INFORMATION

Mack & Salt, Third Wheel

Venue: Bloomsbury Theatre
Date / Time: 19th – 21st March at 8pm

For more information please contact: Florrie Sheehan, on 0207 598 7222 or fsheehan@avalon-entertainment.com