

DAVE GORMAN GETS STRAIGHT TO THE POINT* (*The PowerPoint)

FOUR NEW SHOWS ADDED AT LONDON'S SOUTHBANK CENTRE

It was announced today (25th June 2014) that DAVE GORMAN will add four shows at London's Southbank Centre for his brand new tour, Dave Gorman Gets Straight To The Point*... (*The PowerPoint). The new dates will see DAVE perform from Tuesday 16th to Friday 19th December at the Queen Elizabeth Hall, and will be in addition to his original London date at Hammersmith Apollo on 15th November. This will be DAVE's first new live tour show in three years and follows on from Powerpoint Presentation, which went on a three-time-extended nationwide tour of the UK. Tickets will go on pre-sale from 9am today and on general sale from 9am on Friday 27th June.

Yes. That's right. It's a PowerPoint presentation. We know what you're thinking. But don't worry... we think you're in pretty safe (and funny) hands. You won't need to take notes and you almost certainly won't be tested on it later.

Along with the international tour of Powerpoint Presentation, DAVE's live career has seen him sell out multiple tours of the UK, have two six-week runs off Broadway in New York extended to three months, complete a successful four-month tour of the USA and become responsible for the fastest selling show in the history of the Studio Theatre at The Sydney Opera House. Live performances have also earned him the title of Best One Person Show at the HBO US Comedy Arts Festival (twice), as well as nominations for the Perrier Award, the South Bank Award (alongside EDDIE IZZARD and Little Britain) and two nominations for the prestigious American Drama Desk Award, where he was up against - among others - the legend, BILLY CRYSTAL.

DAVE will return to (channel) Dave with an extended second series of the critically acclaimed, Modern Life Is Goodish in early autumn. Also an audience hit, the debut series was the highest rating new commission on Dave last year.

What the press said about Dave Gorman's last live show

"...Dave Gorman's latest offering is a much-needed reminder of how a truly gifted performer can delve beyond clever punchlines and make us look afresh at the world. The nearest thing we have to that late, great American raconteur Spalding Gray, he turns monomania into the most compelling and uplifting of confessionals." ★★★★★ The Times

"Dave Gorman has returned to the fringe after a few years away with a triumph of a show of the kind he pioneered and still does better than anyone. In a show that is effectively a double-act with his technology, Gorman has turned using PowerPoint into an art form, repeatedly wrongfooting the audience's expectations and finding joy or bewildered outrage in the minutiae of the media that increasingly shape the way we see the world." Observer

". . .has transformed the seemingly mundane into hours of unabashed hysteria". ★★★★★ Metro

"It is Gorman's playful niceness that made the show a winning show. . . This was superbly structured, packed with precision-tooled punchlines, twists and visual gags. Extremely clever. The man behind me was not laughing, he was positively ululating. And probably still is." ★★★★★ Evening Standard

"This is a technically slick, varied and consistently funny return." ★★★★★ The Scotsman

"...this is not about the medium, but the material. And what an impressive hour of intelligent, playful, quirky, obsessive and original fun it turns out to be." Chortle
