

HAYLEY ELLIS

WE NEED TO TALK ABOUT
KEVIN

Award-winning newcomer HAYLEY ELLIS had a pretty crap year in 2012 but got through it with help from Woman's best friend, her dog Kevin. This year HAYLEY is back in Edinburgh bringing Kevin and her first solo show to the festival. Fresh from supporting ROISIN CONATY on tour, the Manchester comedian and regular contributor to XFM's breakfast show lets you in on her loves, losses, and life-lessons learnt from a little Lhasa Apso dog.

A regular MC around the UK, HAYLEY's warmth and girl-next-door charm make her hard to dislike, something which has become evident in her success in new act competitions throughout the UK. Join this loser at life and winner at losing, as she presents her debut hour of candid and engaging stand up. And then there's KEVIN. We really need to talk about him.

WHAT THE PRESS HAS SAID ABOUT HAYLEY

"Ellis surely has a future in comedy." Steve Bennett, Chortle

"Small in stature and big in energy, Ellis simply makes you laugh." Giggle Beats

"Hayley Ellis is fast becoming Manchester's Funniest female" Steve Wright, Radio 2

"Destined for comedy greatness. Don't be surprised if you see Hayley Ellis on your TV soon... One of the hottest comedy prospects going." Jim Salveson, Producer, XFM Manchester Breakfast Show
