

CHRIS RAMSEY TO RESCHEDULE SPRING LEG OF HIS BIGGEST EVER STAND-UP TOUR INTO 2022

Due to the ongoing Covid-19 situation, critically acclaimed stand-up comedian and TV host Chris Ramsey has had to move the rescheduled spring leg of his sold out, twice extended Chris Ramsey 20/20 live tour, from February 2021 to February 2022. This rescheduled leg will now see Chris playing London's iconic Hackney Empire on 4th February 2022 ending in Glasgow's King's Theatre on 17th May 2022. With over 100 dates, his biggest ever nationwide tour kicks off at London's The Eventim Apollo, Hammersmith on 3rd September 2021, including a homecoming performance at Newcastle's Utilita Arena (having filled the venue twice previously), fans can expect even more of Chris' high energy, life affirming, trademark stand-up. A full list of Chris' rescheduled tour dates can be found here

Chris said, "Absolutely gutted to be moving my tour dates AGAIN. But it sadly feels like the right decision with everything still ongoing. So the spring dates of the 2020 tour will now be in spring 2022... this is absolutely the last time I will ever name a tour after the year it was written in. Fuck COVID."
