

COMEDIAN AND THE LOL WORD CO-FOUNDER CHLOE PETTS PRESENTS DEBUT HOUR 'TRANSIENCE' AT THE EDINBURGH FESTIVAL FRINGE

"one of our most compelling young comics... a first show that was worth waiting for."

Brian Logan, The Guardian ★★★★★

"She is confident, laid-back, casual – and very funny."

Ella Braidwood, The Guardian

"brilliant comedian"

Alexandra Harrow, Time Out

"compelling presence"

Steve Bennett, Chortle

"inexhaustibly funny mind"

Diva Magazine

One of the most exciting new acts on the comedy circuit, rising star Chloe Petts (Hypothetical, Jonathan Ross' Comedy Club and The Stand-Up Sketch Show) presents her debut show at this year's Edinburgh Festival Fringe with Transience at Pleasance, Upstairs from 3rd – 28th August at 6.00pm, fresh off the back from supporting Ed Gamble on his Electric 2022 UK tour. A brilliantly sharp live performer, in this debut hour Petts uses her trademark cerebral "laddishness" to examine her desperate attempts at living in the moment, the darts and her (strictly non-romantic) love for men who watch it.

Co-founder of The LOL Word, an all women and non-binary queer comedy collective "transforming comedy" (The Guardian) regularly hosting sell-out monthly London nights, Chloe is an alumna of the prestigious Pleasance Comedy Reserve, has been shortlisted for the BBC Comedy Award, was a finalist of Leicester Square New Comedian of the Year Awards 2017 and came runner-up in the Funny Women Awards 2017. As well as supporting Ed Gamble on tour, she has performed alongside Josh Widdicome and Sindu Vee.

Chloe's TV and radio credits include Jonathan Ross's Comedy Club (ITV), The Stand-Up Sketch Show (ITV2), Richard Osman's House of Games (BBC Two), Random Acts (Channel 4), Hypothetical (Dave), Fighting Talk (BBC Radio 5 Live) and she has also appeared on BBC Three Quickies. In 2020, Chloe featured on Penguin's audiobook Edinburgh Unlocked which was recorded in absence of the Edinburgh Festival Fringe.
