'GRITTY POLICE DRAMA: A ONE MAN MUSICAL' - 60 IMPRESSIONS, 60 MINUTES, 1 MURDER

"It should really just be called Luke Kempner: DI Bullseye, because it works... good-natured verve, and bravura singing to boot... With at least one good gag a minute as well as those voices, this is his most accomplished show since his Downton Abbey debut" ★★★★★

Dominic Cavendish, The Telegraph

"Outrageously talented... it was too much fun... nailed the impressions... massively entertaining... The audience ate out of his hand from the word go, loving the recognition of familiar voices, familiar tropes and daft combinations of characters... Kempner can sell a gag, a song, a routine. He's a one-man variety explosion... this is a blast of laughter and music to raise the spirits, a refreshing, feelgood performance." ★★★★★

Julia Chamberlain, Chortle

"The fun is fast and furious... It's hilarious... Kempner is a very personable entertainer to be with. They even had to add another couple of performances. Recommended" ★★★★★

"hour of all-round entertainment... There is something for everyone here... you would not be able to find such high production quality and singing talent in many other shows of its kind at Edinburgh Fringe... witty... The audience is in hysterics... the jokes are clever... Captivating and receiving a standing ovation, this show also garners an outrageous amount of applause. This is a show that I could see every audience enjoying... The world would benefit if the imagination of Luke Kempner contributed to more police dramas. There would certainly be plenty more laughs." ★★★★★

Expect lots of laughter and the opportunity to see an impression king at work." ★★★★★*
