Clare Martin, Paste Magazine

“there’s never been a better time for Taskmaster, one of Great Britain’s many hidden television gems, to finally make its way to the United States”

Simon Thompson, Forbes

After making their American debut earlier this year with an event that sold out in minutes and saw fans travelling from far and wide to attend, the almighty Taskmaster Greg Davies and his diligent Assistant (and show creator) Alex Horne have announced they will return to New York to host the world premiere of the first episode of the brand-new Taskmaster season 19. Taking place at The Town Hall in New York on Tuesday 21st January 2025, this will be the very first time audiences anywhere will have a chance to watch the latest season of the International Emmy nominated, BAFTA and National Comedy Award winning show.

Tickets are on sale now and can be found online here

As well as the first ever screening of the latest season, the event will include an on-stage interview with Alex Horne and Greg Davies, and an exclusive task for the audience to take part in, giving a lucky few people the chance to compete in a real Taskmaster task and be judged and scored by the Taskmaster and his Little Assistant themselves.

Transmission details for Taskmaster Season 19 will be revealed in due course. The season will be available to watch on Channel 4 in the UK, and on the Official Taskmaster YouTube Channel, and streaming platform Taskmaster SuperMax+ globally

RECENT CRITICAL PRAISE FOR TASKMASTER IN THE U.S.:

"[The show's] simple premise has achieved immense popularity... This, in all of its weirdness, is the magic of Taskmaster"

Chris Karnadi, The Atlantic

"Taskmaster has risen from a strange little British comedy show to becoming a global cult phenomenon"

Jeremy Fuster, The Wrap

"Television's most joyful celebration of silliness and lateral thinking has had a great 2023"

William Hughes, A.V. Club

Effortlessly charming... The show exists in its own kind of universe... Taskmaster has become beloved the world over

Maggie Boccella, Collider

"Among the thriving ecosystem of panel shows in the United Kingdom, one reigns supreme across the pond: Taskmaster. The uproariously silly and witheringly hilarious show... The program has exploded in popularity in the U.S. over the past few years, thanks to a strong YouTube presence, even stronger word-of-mouth support, and the sheer quality of the comedy"

Pete Volk, Polygon

Over the past few years, the British comedy game series Taskmaster has risen from very specific Anglophile favorite to what's arguably the internet's favorite casual watch. It's a show that's proven so infectious among its fans that we're often dying to get other people into it, sharing clips around and doing our best to turn as many people as possible on to its zaniness.

Matthew Jackson, Vulture

There's a lot to love about Taskmaster, the U.K.'s most unhinged panel show

Tara Ariano, Cracked

"The delightful British comedy show"

Lauren Piester, The Messenger

"Greg Davies and Alex Horne have made the UK's Taskmaster into an addictive cultural phenomenon"

Brittany Frederick, CBR

"The show is absurd, the tasks are pointless, and currently, its YouTube channel is buttressing a significant portion of my emotional well-being... Watching Taskmaster feels like watching your funniest friends do stupid shit outside a bar after several beers — ridiculous, endearing, and sometimes genuinely impressive”

Magdeleine Aggeler, The Cut

“widely entertaining series...It’s a clever take on the classic British panel show format that doubles as a devious way to torture its celebrity guests — with hilarious, and occasionally genius, results.”

Lauren Messman, The New York Times

“Taskmaster is a weird show where weirdos thrive, and series 16 has been an all-timer in terms of eccentric contestants... it is the kind of thing that makes Taskmaster so special”

Jen Lennon, The A.V. Club

“there is perhaps no better show for American audiences to discover right now...Every episode is funny and silly and exciting”

Lea Palmieri, The Decider

“you’re going to need to tune in... Prepare yourselves for the giggle of a lifetime... and if you haven’t yet set your eyes upon this feast of comedy, you are in for a treat.”

Lauren Piester, E!

“Taskmaster” is the funniest show on TV you’re not watching, and it has been since 2015. It’s probably the funniest show on TV, period. And there are 16 seasons, all streaming for free on YouTube, to brighten your life.”

Kelly Lawler, USA Today

“Taskmaster is arguably one of the better things to ever come out of England”

Sam Barsanti, AV Club

Start your viewing pleasure now... you'll have a blast

Matthew Schuchman, Clutch Points

“It’s the gift from across the pond that keeps on giving”

Allegra Rosenberg, Polygon

RECENT CRITICAL PRAISE FOR TASKMASTER IN THE UK:

“Taskmaster is miraculous. It deserves to be carried through the streets in a sedan chair”

Stuart Heritage, The Guardian

“the world’s hottest comedy show”

Liam Kelly, The Telegraph

“Another series full of relentlessly good vibes and ludicrous fun”

Phil Harrison, The Observer

“the king of celebrity reality TV... If you want to watch mildly famous people complete inessential tasks, there’s only one real winner. No one does that task better than Taskmaster.”

Killian Faith-Kelly, GQ

“genuinely beloved Channel 4 gameshow Taskmaster... one of comedy’s most cuddly and likeable programmes”

Marc Burrows, The New Statesman

“the most imaginative thing on TV”

Isobel Lewis, The i

“One of the most effortless and reliable pleasures TV has to offer.”

Phil Harrison, The Guardian

“Has there ever been a comedy show as consistently brilliant as Taskmaster? Each instalment is dripping with quality”

Stuart Pink, The Sun

“TV’s most beloved if pointless celebrity competitions”

Hollie Richardson, The Observer

“nearly five years on it’s a veritable TV empire... [and] it’s clear that success hasn’t diluted Taskmaster’s inventiveness and verve”

Huw Fullerton, Radio Times

“The absurdist comedy competition has not yet encountered a shortage of willing victims and as the latest gang settles in”

Helen Stuart, The Sunday Times

“Once a hidden gem watched by only a cult few, now big star comedians queue up for a place on this bonkers game show”

Sara Wallis, The Mirror

“It’s testament to the razor-sharp wit and ingenuity of Greg Davies and ‘Little’ Alex Horne that, 18 series in, Taskmaster remains the most wildly hilarious hour on television” ★★★★★

Steven Perkins, TV Times Magazine

“Returning for an 18th series – with no sign yet of its exceptionally enthusiastic fan base crumbling – omnipotent Taskmaster Greg Davies and his grovelling general factotum Alex Horne subject another handful of humiliation-loving comedians to degradation and impossibly silly tasks in pursuit of one of TV's great prizes."

Gerard O'Donovan, The Sunday Telegraph

"It's not every panel show that can broadcast two series a year and feel fresh each episode, but Taskmaster is a cut above." ★★★★★

Nicola Tucker, TV Times Magazine

"this much-loved show. As always, the ridiculous tasks result in a lot of laughter... the competition gets off to a cracking start – literally... brilliant fun"

Gemma Graham, The Sun

"The Taskmaster format seems to be unbreakable... it's hilariously funny... and it never repeats itself either, so always feels fresh as a daisy"

Daily Star

"Quite possibly the best show in the telly is back for its 18th season and, amazingly, it manages to be as funny and entertaining as the very first episode"

Love It!

"a global sensation"

Bruce Dessau, What To Watch

"this television masterpiece... still as funny as ever. Just watch it – it's brilliant"

Love It!

"Praise be, Taskmaster is back... In an uncertain world, it's good to know there are some things you can rely on. The sun rising in the morning... And, of course, Taskmaster, the endlessly inventive task-based comedy game show that serves up reliably bonkers entertainment series after series."
