

TASKMASTER SERIES 19 LANDS AT 9PM, THURSDAY 1ST MAY ON CHANNEL 4

Hot on the heels of winning Best Comedy Entertainment Programme at the Royal Television Society Awards for its spin off series Junior Taskmaster, and receiving a fifth nomination in the forthcoming BAFTAs 2025 having previously won Best Comedy Entertainment, the international hit show Taskmaster is set to return with a brand-new 19th series at 9pm on Thursday 1st May on Channel 4.

The new series sees five valiant comedy minds step up to the task in search of glory. Married. Annoyed*), and comedian, actor and podcaster Stevie Martin (Starstruck, BBC/HBO Max). All of them will approach the series with hope in their hearts, while one will dance away pretending to be humble in the face of their truly incredible victory.

Taskmaster Series 19 airs weekly at 9pm from Thursday 1st May on Channel 4

Previews available on Ready To Air

Little Alex Horne has polished and preened another version of Taskmaster Greg Davies's regal head cast in pure gold in readiness for a brand-new series, while Greg Davies is, as usual, at the centre of it all, administering points and astute feedback as he welcomes five new comics into his world of misrule.

Taskmaster is one of the youngest skewing shows on Channel 4, with nearly a quarter of its audience last year aged 16-34, across both linear and streaming. Across 2024 Taskmaster was in the top 5 most streamed shows on Channel 4, for all individuals.

"The hottest comedy television show on the planet"
Julia Llewellyn Smith, The Sunday Times

"the king of celebrity reality TV... If you want to watch mildly famous people complete inessential tasks, there's only one real winner. No one does that task better than Taskmaster."

Killian Faith-Kelly, GQ

"Far funnier, though, is Taskmaster... a fine way to while away an hour"

★★★★

Anita Singh, The Telegraph

"Returning for an 18th series – with no sign yet of its exceptionally enthusiastic fan base crumbling – omnipotent Taskmaster Greg Davies and his grovelling general factotum Alex Horne subject another handful of humiliation-loving comedians to degradation and impossibly silly tasks in pursuit of one of TV's great prizes."

Gerard O'Donovan, The Sunday Telegraph

"it already looks set to be a vintage series"

Huw Fullerton, Radio Times

"TV's greatest challenge show"

Hollie Richardson, The Guardian

"a global sensation"

Bruce Dessau, What To Watch

"we can't wait to see what fresh tasks they've concocted for the new batch of willing contestants...just like the utter nonsense we need in our lives right now."

Georgia Green, Good Housekeeping

"thoroughly entertaining"

Sara Wallis, Daily Mirror

"few shows more wholesome than Taskmaster... funny as heck"

Fiona Price, Daily Express

"Taskmaster reaches its 18th birthday with this new series, but thankfully there's still no sign of maturity in Greg Davies and his henchman Little Alex Horne"

Jason Arnopp, Heat

"It's testament to the razor-sharp wit and ingenuity of Greg Davies and 'Little' Alex Horne that, 18 series in, Taskmaster remains the most wildly hilarious hour on television"

★★★★★

Steven Perkins, TV Times Magazine

"The Taskmaster format seems to be unbreakable... it's hilariously funny... and it never repeats itself either, so always feels fresh as a daisy"

Daily Star

"Expect truly ludicrous tasks and memorable moments sure to have us in stitches – with the bizarre challenges spawning plenty more moments of comedy gold"

Bella

"The players are new but the madcap challenges are as entertaining as ever"

The Sun

"a cut above the rest"

Daily Mail

"Quite possibly the best show in the telly is back for its 18th season and, amazingly, it manages to be as funny and entertaining as the very first episode"

Love It!
